U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

Jan: 27, 2013

The Honorable Kathy A. Swrath - stated:

I started work for Seabody Coal on April, 1970. Over the 30 years, I had several contracts with them which guaranteed a pension and lifetime health benefits.

After retirement I continued receiving these benefits until Seabody informed me that Patriot was taking over their bookkeeping system. I have never worked for Patriot; only Seabody Coal.

If my family loses these benefits, it will cause a hardship on me and my family and therefore will put the burden on the government and not on the Seabody Coal and their executives who are making millions of dollars for profit.

We appreciate your time and consideration of this matter and hope you rule in favor of the working-class citizen.

Sincerely,

Darwin and Mary Hullett
