Honorable Kathy A Surratt-States
Re: Case # 12-51502

I worked for Peabody Coal Company for forty years as a UMWA electrician. My work schedule was eight hours a day six days a week. However, I usually was asked to work on Sunday and to come into work at all hours of the day, night, and holidays for electrical problems. I seldom refused the requests.

Peabody guaranteed my fellow Union members and myself our pensions and medical insurance for us and our dependents for life. Now Peabody has created Patriot Coal Company to fail and file for bankruptcy in order to ignore their promises and accountability.

I am asking you to please rule against Patriot Coal concerning Bankruptcy Case # 12-51502 in order for UMWA members to receive the benefits Peabody promised us while we worked for the Company.

Respectfully,
