Debtors.) Jointly Administered

ORDER

The matter before the Court is Joint Motion of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Compel Production of Documents by Peabody Energy Corporation and Objection of Peabody Energy Corporation to Joint Motion of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Compel Production of Documents. A hearing was held on September 13, 2013.

Based upon a consideration of the pleadings, the arguments of counsel and the record as a whole, including that Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure does not contemplate an unlimited time to comply with a document request made under this rule and likewise that this may not be the only discovery that will be propounded, and also consideration of Debtors' recent progress towards plan confirmation, in addition to the process that the Debtors and Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (hereinafter "Movants") must undertake not only to review the documents to be produced but then to analyze and ultimately determine what if any next steps that the Movants will undertake,

IT IS ORDERED THAT the Joint Motion of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to Compel Production of Documents by Peabody Energy Corporation is GRANTED IN PART; and

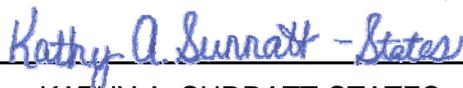

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT all documents requested must be produced on or before

October 31, 2013 by rolling production; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT there will be a telephonic status hearing on October 8, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. and there will be a status hearing on the October 22, 2013 Patriot Status Hearing docket; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT at these status hearings Peabody is to report the number of documents, paper and electronic, that have been reviewed and the number of documents, paper and electronic, that have be produced as of that date; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT Peabody may continue to use its Relativity Assisted Review and attorney review to determine the documents to be produced.
